Come and FEEL what you have been missing.

Here is some of what we'll cover for 6 hours:

- The yin and yang of the pulse
- The physical organ vs The function of the organ in the pulse
 - Qualitative vs Quantitative aspects
 - Breaking down the locations more precisely
- Locating pain through the pulse and letting that guide your acu-points
 - The foundational diagnosis from the pulse
 - Hormonal imbalances within the pulse

This workshop has A LOT of practical hands-on, visual aids and discussion. Greg will engage and inspire you to experience the pulses in greater depth. He published his first book in 2011 The Pulse Atlas, an illustrative guide to pulse diagnosis to guide conversations, and demonstrate a clear picture of the pulse.
